STUDENT PRIVACY RELEASE PROCEDURE

We strive to showcase the entire WCA K-12 experience through photographs and videos, as well as a strong online presence on our website and social media. These images capture the heart of Wake Christian Academy, and are important to promote our quality, Christ-centered program to the community. With that said, we are extremely mindful of the importance of safety and anonymity, especially when children are involved. It is our desire that you review the following policies regarding student privacy, and understand that we favor a conservative approach to the identification of our students.

The following are examples of how WCA uses images and identifies students:

SENIORS

In order to recognize as many senior accomplishments as possible, WCA will identify ONLY members of the Senior Class by their full names (first and last).

Senior Play

Seniors Carmen Smith and Erin Hewitt in Cinderella

The senior class of WCA presented Cinderella on January 23-26 and January 28. Forty-five seniors participated in this Rodgers and Hammerstein's rendition of Cinderella. The cast began rehearsing in

MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Middle and High School students will be identified by full names (first and last) ONLY within corresponding articles, and will NOT be identified by name under photographs.

NCAJ Mock Trial Competition

The WCA Defense Team

On Saturday, February 9, the WCA Mock Trial Team competed in the North Carolina Advocates for Justice (NCAJ) Mock Trial Competition.

During this event, team members Gena Collins, Dustin Cowan, Tucker Daniel, Emily Larsen, Matthew Mestayer, Austin Moody, Carson Smith, and Jessica Woods, tried their hand at prosecuting and defending a civil trial case. These high school students played the role of either attorneys or witnesses, while their performances were judged by a set of local attorneys, serving as the jury. Prior to the event, the team spent countless hours with attorneys Don Hunt and Kristen Atkins, of Akins-Hunt-Atkins Law firm, and Superior Court Judge Paul Ridgeway, preparing for the case.

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS

Elementary students will be identified by first name ONLY within corresponding articles, and will NOT be identified by name under photographs.
