Rationale for WCA Standard of Dress

Scripture does not stipulate how we should dress. However, God's Word does call us to be imitators of God (I Cor. 11:1), to be modest in our appearance (I Tim. 2:9), to do things in an orderly fashion (I Cor. 14:40), and to bring honor to Him (I Cor. 10:31). A standard of dress is one way Wake Christian Academy meets these commands. Research indicates a dress standard creates an environment conducive to learning and fosters self-esteem in students. The purpose in our standard of dress is to establish a high benchmark of modesty, decorum, and academic excellence.

In an effort to standardize and simplify our school dress the following items are permitted. Any deviation from the standard is not acceptable. Students' whose dress does not meet the standard will be provided a change of clothing for the day. The clothing should then be laundered and returned the next school day.

Dress for Special Events

- Homecoming/Fall Festival (as directed by Principals)
- Class events (Sr. Fruit Sale, Jr. BBQ, & Middle School Work days at New Life Camp) (Jeans and Class T-shirt)
- Monthly Dress Down (Spirit Days) (Jeans and WCA T-shirt)
